Zakiah Jaafar, Deputy Secretary General, Treasury (MOF) via Microsoft Teams. Discussion on issues: i. Extension of scope of HRDF contribution raised by MIA & CTIM. ii. Double contributions as a result of extension of scope of HRDF contribution raised by The Building Industry Presidents' Council (BIPC). iii. HRD Corp new guidelines on training reimbursement claim mechanism raised by MIA.
16.06.2021	ACEM responded to PSMB letter dated 8 June 2021 that ACEM have never been notified of any stakeholder engagements made by PSMB in the past few years on the matter as claimed. We have also not been informed or made aware of any Regulatory Impact Assessment (RIA) being performed for the proposed expansion of the scope of the Act.
02.08.2021	ACEM (with other BIPC members) attended "Sesi Libat Urus YB Dato' Sri Mustapa Mohamed, Menteri Di Jabatan Perdana Menteri (Ekonomi) Bersama Badan Profesional Mengenai Isu-Isu Ekonomi" chaired by YB Dato' Sri Mustapa Mohamed. ACEM raised the issue of the HRDF levy extension to the Minister pointing out increase in cost of doing business.
04.08.2021	ACEM brought up the HRDF issue during the Building Industry Presidents' Council (BIPC) to discuss further actions to be taken. BIPC members decided that letter to be sent to the Prime Minister and cc to all Ministries.

3) ACEM would like to inform members as to date:

- No indication received from HRD Corp that a Regulatory Impact Assessment (RIA) was conducted before the Act and Regulations were gazetted.
- Despite appeals from numerous stakeholders, the Human Resources Ministry have yet to change the ruling of expansion of PSMB Act 2001 (Act 612) to include construction industry.

4) ACEM would keep trying to bring up the issue to the Ministries and engage with MOF, MITI and CIDB to highlight the issue and seek for a favourable conclusion of the HRDF levy predicament.
